Letter to Moore & Owens.

Barre, Vt.
Dear Sirs: Clothing is just like paint. It fits or it don't; it wears or it don't, turns weal or water or not; and goes out of fashion.

What do we wear clothes for? Did you ever think of it? Different persons have different reasons, no doubt, but one paints Devore for beauty, to keep in fashion, and keep-out water.

Fashion says paint; we all paint. There is beauty in paint; we paint a good deal for that. And buildings are costly and fashionable; put on a water-proof two or three coats of paint, and your buildings last as long as you keep them dry. It costs nothing to paint; it costs your buildings not to.

Devore is the paint that lasts; disappearing paints are the paints that cost.

Yours truly,
F. W. Devore & Co.
P. S.—Reynolds & Son sell our paint.

Card of Thanks.

PROPERTY EXEMPT.

Total of $3,770,000 on Which Taxes Are Not Paid in Burlington.

Burlington, Sept. 28.—The discussion of the city's finances has brought to the front again the question of exempted property. An investigation showed that property exempted is appraised at $3,770,000, divided as follows: College property, $810,000; Protestant Church property, $305,000; Irish Catholic Church property, $384,000; French Catholic Church, $161,500; miscellaneous, $1,541,000; corporations, $287,000. In addition to this is all the city property, which should not be considered, however, in the question of exempted property, making a grand total of $4,757,000.

All Will Smile.

When buying paint, don't fail to look into the merits of the Colonial Paint. It will pay you after your work is completed with this paint. You will smile, your wife will smile, your mother-in-law will smile, the whole neighborhood will smile, and everybody will be happy. The Colonial dealers are happy because they are selling large quantities of this paint. Sold by C. A. Heath, Barre, Vt.
